

EXAMPLES – HOW YOU CAN HELP UNIFY AMERICA BY WORKING WITH ROSIES

- 1. Interview Rosies and be sure you keep a permanent record for history
- 2. Organize a Ring a Bell for Rosies in your community at the same moment bells are rung around America and other nations with Rosies
- 3. Hold art contests and submit art to "Thanks!"
- 4. Tell government leaders to take simple, inexpensive action such as:
 - A. Get bridges, roads and buildings named "Rosie the Riveter"
 - B. Get a Postage Stamp that honors Rosies
 - C. Create Community Gardens that teach about Victory Gardens
 - D. Get support for the American Rosie Movement, which does not lead by protest or blame, but follows Rosies' work ethic, cooperative spirit, and commitment to America and freedom.
- 5. Plant pink dogwood trees (the species Rosies chose to represent them)
- 6. Install bluebird nest boxes (the species Rosies chose to represent them)
- 7. Write about Rosies and the American Rosie Movement, and share your writing
- 8. Hold events for Rosies and be sure to invite allied nations, young women who need to be inspired to do new things, and school children.
- 9. Take a Rosie to a school, bet photos and keep her story in the library.
- 10. Design displays for Rosies and put them in public places.
- 11. Ask Senior Centers, Historic Societies, geriatric specialists, home health agencies, etc. find women who worked on the home front during WWII.
- 12. Ask women in science, technology, engineering and math to advertise with a Rosie about the benefits of these jobs to women and America.
- 13. Ask businesses and others to sponsor work with Rosies.
- 14. Tell people that the American Rosie Movement is important – and we all should educate and do first-rate work with Rosies, while we can.
- 15. Communicate to America that . . . ,

"We pull better when we pull together!"

The time is right, but it's almost gone.